Advertising becomes past-due if not paid on or before 15th of the month following the month advertisement ran. A charge of one and one-half percent (1 1/2 %) eighteen percent (18%) per year, applies on all past-due balances as of 10 A.M. on our last business day of the month. Saturdays and Sundays do not constitute a business day. Postmarks, check dates, etc. are deemed inconclusive proof of payment, therefore only payments received, in hand, are considered.

To cancel a signed advertising agreement, the advertiser agrees to pay for the space used prior to cancellation at the Open Rate and other reasonable costs involved in collection. All payments made toward this space will be credited.

Upon signing a retail advertising agreement, the advertiser agrees to use the minimum space designated for the term of the agreement. If less space is used, the advertiser will pay for the minimum space.

If the advertiser fails to perform under the provisions of the agreement, the newspaper may cancel the agreement and the advertiser will pay for space used as set forth in the second paragraph.

The publisher reserves the right to change the terms, conditions and rates upon thirty (30) days written notice. If the changes are not acceptable, the advertiser may terminate the agreement upon the date of change without penalty.
